

The Trivia Vug
November 2009
By RJ Harris

80% of the lead that we use in the USA goes into lead acid batteries.

Iron oxide is used in the ink for U.S. Currency.

Chrysoprase is also know as Australian jade, quartz jade, green quartz, green hornstone, and jadine.

Copper is the world's third most used metal, after iron and aluminum.

Lead was used in roofing on the ancient Tower of Babylon.

Sources: History Channel, Mineral of the Month Club.